

RALEIGH IN BRIEF.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN AND AROUND THE CAPITAL.

Short Items of News Gathered on the Fly by the Chronicle's Reporters.

But one marriage license was issued yesterday.

The Capital Club will give a german at the club ball room this evening.

The Biannual Report of the State Commissioner of Agriculture is now in press and will be ready in a day or two.

Mr. W. H. Riddick, of Wake Forest will enter upon his duties as Deputy Register of Deeds tomorrow, January 1st.

Rev. J. A. Cunningham, Presiding Elder of the Raleigh District, will preach in the Edenton Street Methodist church to-night.

Much interest is manifested at the meeting now going on at the union mission night. Rev. O. L. Stringfield is conducting the meeting.

This being the last day of the year 1890, every member of the Tabernacle Baptist church is urged to be present, if possible, at its meeting to-night.

Important meeting of the W. C. T. U., this (Wednesday) afternoon at Edenton Street Methodist church at 4 o'clock. A full attendance is earnestly desired.

M. T. Norris & Bro. are moving into the Dodd building. This store was occupied by Jones & Powell, who have opened an office on Fayetteville street.

Grand Secretary D. W. Bain gives notice elsewhere of the 14th convocation of the Grand Lodge of A. F. & A. Masons, which will be held in Raleigh January 13th, 1891.

Last night Centre Lodge, K. of P., gave a very enjoyable supper in the vacant store of the Henry building. Speeches were made and a good time generally was had; so said everybody.

Work has begun in dead earnest on the new electric street railway. Squads of hands are at work in several parts of the city, taking up the old track and otherwise putting the road in readiness.

Sheriff I. H. Garden, of McDowell county, and Sheriff W. J. Herndon, of Martin county, settled with the State Treasurer yesterday. The former paying in $2,567.66 and the latter $6,311.87.

The second session of the Agricultural and Mechanical college will open Friday next. Every department is now in full working order, and a much larger increase of students is expected than formerly.

Mr. E. B. Freeman, an employee of Messrs. Edwards & Broughton, went off some days ago to spend the Christmas holidays. He returned yesterday to the surprise of his many friends with Mrs. Freeman. Jolly Christmas this.

The Raleigh Tobacco buyers and warehousemen are arranging to have, at an early day, what will be known as premium sales. This plan will greatly encourage the tobacco growers and will add much to Raleigh as a tobacco market.

We are sorry that Grand Chancellor Cook, of Fayetteville, N. C., who came up to attend Center Lodge K. of P., and the banquet last night, was summoned home by a telegram announcing the extreme illness of a member of his family before the exercises were over.

The three Presbyterian Sunday schools of the city united in a Christmas tree last night at the armory of the Governor's Guard. It was largely attended and enjoyed by everybody. The table for the contributions for the poor was laden with articles that made many a heart glad.

Messrs. Baily and Carroll, two young gentlemen, formerly employed by Johnson & Barbour, have formed a co-partnership and will open a stock of general merchandise at No. 235 Wilmington street, the store room formerly occupied by Leach Bros. Success to you gentlemen.

We were pleased to shake the hand of Evangelist W. P. Fife yesterday, who was passing through the city and remained over during the day. He was accompanied by Mrs. Fife. They are on their way to Louisville, where they will go on a hunting expedition. After the holiday season he will go to Kinston, N. C., to hold a series of meetings.

Street Commissioner Blake says the large culvert at the intersection of North and West streets is now completed, preparatory to the opening of North street to Sanders avenue. This will add greatly to the convenience of persons living in that section of the city. He also informs us that the opening of West Morgan street is an assured fact, and that it will certainly be opened ere long.

For many years Raleigh had a successful law school, but owing to age and disability of the instructor the school went down. Why not have another? There is no place in the State where a law school would be better patronized, or more advantages to students than Raleigh. With access to the public libraries and the many courts held here, including the Supreme court, this city possesses advantages over any other place. Now let us have another law school.

NEW YEAR'S RECEPTION.

Those Who Will Receive New Year Day.

Rev. Dr. Hall and wife will give a New Year's Reception at their home, corner of Martin and Person streets, and take this opportunity of extending a most cordial invitation to all members of the Tabernacle church and friends, to call any time on Thursday from 10 o'clock a. m. until 10 o'clock p. m.

At the residence of Col. J. M. Heck, corner of North Blount and North streets, a reception will be given by the family.

Excursion to Cuba.

An excursion is being arranged by the Baptist, for an excursion to Havana, Cuba, to take place February 1st. The occasion being the dedication of the first Baptist church ever erected in that place. Negotiations are now in process to get reduced rates from Raleigh and all principal points in this State. The cost of the house of worship will be $80,000.

Governor Fowle, who spent his Christmas in South Carolina, has returned home charmed with the delights of a South Carolina Christmas. He now carries a handsome and massive gold-headed cane which was presented to him by Col. John S. Cunningham, who is a member of the Governor's staff.

The CHRONICLE was glad to see in Raleigh yesterday Mr. Henry R. Bryan, of New Bern, Superior Court Judge-elect of the Second judicial district. He is looking remarkably well and will enter upon the discharge of his high and responsible duties in the vigor of mental and physical manhood. He is a native of Raleigh and comes of a family that has long been known in North Carolina as pure, able and patriotic. He will wear the judicial ermine worthily and prove himself one of those whose pride of ancestry stimulates to a career of honor and usefulness. On the first of January he will take the oath of office though he will not enter upon his duties until near the close of February. His first court will be held at Washington, in Beaufort county.

Weather Report.

Raleigh yesterday: Maximum temperature 52; minimum temperature 30; rain-fall, 0.00.

Forecast for Raleigh and vicinity: Fair weather, much warmer, becoming cloudy in the afternoon with light rain to-night and to-morrow morning.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—For Virginia and North Carolina, fair; southerly winds.

MARRIAGES.

On yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, in Selma, Prof. Edwin L. Hughes was united in marriage to Miss Florence Moore, daughter of Mr. Edwin Moore. The ceremony that linked these hearts took place in the Methodist church, Rev. J. R. Brooks, D. D., of Greensboro, officiating; Miss Mamie Howerton, of Durham, presiding at the organ. The attendants were: Miss Minnie Moore and H. A. Foushee, of Durham; Miss Dora Vick and Edwin Moore, of Selma; Miss Lula Brooks, of Leaksville; C. C. Daniels, of Wilson; Miss Nellie Gladstone, of Reidsville; C. A. Smith, of Baltimore; Miss Rosa Waddell, of Nashville; Sidney Tucke, of Selma; Miss Mattie Poul, of Smithfield; D. O. McCullers, of Clayton; Miss Mamie Richardson, of Selma; Dr. M. C. Millander, of Pigeon River; Miss Leonie Graves, of Selma; Thomas Terry, of Reidsville.

Immediately after the marriage Mr. and Mrs. Hughes took the train for Reidsville.

Prof. Hughes is superintendent of the Reidsville Graded School—one of the foremost educators of the State; a man of unusual promise.

Miss Moore is one of the most accomplished and brany young ladies in the State—a woman of rare charms and graces of head and heart.

There was a pretty marriage in Wake Forest yesterday in the Memorial Hall at 11:30 a. m. The occasion was the celebration of the nuptial vows of Mr. T. E. Holding, a popular young druggist, and Miss Minta Royall, daughter of Dr. Wm. Royall, all of Wake Forest.

The Christmas festivities were just over and we were prepared to enjoy the occasion to the fullest extent. The church was handsomely decorated. Rev. W. B. Royall, brother of the bride performed the ceremony in a beautiful and impressive manner. The following were the attendants: Miss Lizzie Hobgood and Mr. W. W. Holding; Miss Annie Powell, of Wake Forest, and Mr. O. K. Holding; Miss Zula Face and Mr. D. Boyd Kimball; Miss Ella Holding and Mr. J. L. Kesler; Miss Minta Allen and Mr. Calvin Holding; Miss Eva Belle Simmons and Mr. E. W. Sikes; Miss Mary Neal and Prof. C. O. Brewer; Miss Lucy Mills and Mr. Ray Powell; Miss Rosa Fowler and Mr. E. E. Gill; Miss Alice Dickson and Mr. R. E. Major; Miss Lena Allen and Mr. W. B. Daniel.

The ushers were Messrs. Fred W. Dickson, S. P. Holding, J. O. Kittrell, W. Royall, Jr., and H. A. Royster.

Mrs. B. E. Sledd presided at the organ in her most skillful manner.

Mr. and Mrs. Holding left on the 12:15 train for Washington City and other points. A happy party of Wake Forest girls and boys accompanied them as far as Henderson and wished them much happiness throughout all their life.

The Wyatt Laundry.

Of the several expanding industries in this city, the Wyatt Laundry is probably the most successful and beneficial of them all, considering its age and capital invested. Mr. Leo R. Wyatt deserves much credit for inaugurating this enterprise and developing it to such an extensive business. This institution does work all over the State, and the name of the Oak City Laundry is rapidly being known far and wide. The enlargement of the plant and the removal to larger and more central quarters will be found mentioned in another column. The calendar sent out for 1891 is decidedly the most unique and appropriate of any we have seen. We bespeak still greater success in the new quarters.

Died.

At his home, December 18th, near Dunnsville, Wake county, Mr. W. W. Lloyd, in the 44th year of his age. He died suddenly, having been sick only a few minutes, of heart disease. He leaves a wife and three children and a host of friends to mourn their loss.

Notice.

GRAND LODGE OF N. O. U. A. F. & A. M. OFFICE OF GRAND SECRETARY, RALEIGH, N. C., Dec. 30th, '90.

The 104 Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of North Carolina, will be held in the city of Raleigh, Tuesday evening, January 13th, 1891, commencing at 7:30 o'clock. Transportation at the usual special rates has been secured over the railroads in this State.

Tickets will be on sale January 12th and 13th, good for ten days in returning. Delegates and visitors coming over the Atlantic and North Carolina railroad will purchase return tickets as far as Goldsboro and there get return tickets from Goldsboro to Raleigh. The same rule applies to parties connecting from other roads with the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley railroad.

Parties coming over the Norfolk Southern railroad, paying full fare to Plymouth, can procure return tickets from Plymouth to stations on said road at one half the first class fare. No special rates could be obtained via Norfolk.

The Grand Secretary secures the best arrangements possible and delegates and visitors are requested to be careful in procuring their tickets at the point of taking the cars.

D. W. RAIN, Grand Secretary.

THE WORLD'S COMMERCE.

New YORK, December 30.—Messrs. Hubbard, Price & Company in their cotton circular to-night say: "Cable advices say that the statement in favor of cotton in Liverpool is increasing, and although the advance made to-day was not maintained at the close, a better market is expected here to-morrow. January deliveries were freely offered, as the trades fear a revision of the low grades, which are offering freely from the South for delivery here. Our mail advices from abroad contain complaints of a scarcity of the better grades, which spinners require, to fill the contracts for yarns they have made at high prices."

Receipts at the ports to day were estimated at 48,000 bales, against 52,899 bales last week, and 52,235 bales the same week last year.

Spot cotton is steady at unchanged quotations; middling uplands 9 3-16; sales 184 bales.

Transactions in futures to-day were 80,000 bales.
